For this question,

Question A I just use the identity matrix function set each diagonal with different values and for the second question use the inverse function to find the solution.

And for question3 just change the A to Aa, thus can be proceed to use banded and get .solution